- ( ) Southwest human resource agency, created by § 13-26-102;
- ( ) Upper Cumberland human resource agency, created by § 13-26-102;

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 13-14-104, is amended by deleting the section in its entirety and by substituting instead the following new language:

13-14-104.

(a) The membership of boards created under this chapter shall consist as follows:

(1) The county mayor of each county within the district, or an appointee of the county mayor of each county with knowledge of problems concerning industrial development or promotion;

(2) The chief executive officer of any metropolitan government within the district; and

(3) One (1) state senator and one (1) state representative whose senatorial or representative districts lie wholly or in part in the development district. The senator member shall be selected by the senators whose districts are wholly or in part within the development district. Senators and representatives shall serve on such boards for two (2) years or until they leave the general assembly, whichever occurs first.

Senators whose districts lie wholly or partly within the development district shall meet at the call of the senior senator among those affected, for the purpose of selecting a member of the development district board, and representatives shall meet at the call of the senior representative for that purpose.

(b) Members of the board not described in subdivision (a)(3) shall serve four (4) year terms or until the expiration of the term of the official by whom such representative was appointed, whichever occurs first. Members are subject to reappointment. The representative of each county and metropolitan government as indicated above may be chosen from an existing county or metropolitan planning commission.

(c) The board may appoint an executive committee to act for it and determine the authority of such committee.

(d) No member of the general assembly shall receive any additional compensation for such member's service on a board.

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 13-26-103, is amended by deleting subsection (a) in its entirety and by substituting instead the following new language:

(1) Each human resource agency created in accordance with this part shall have a governing board, with the membership of each to consist as follows:

(A) The county mayor of each county within the district, or an appointee of the county mayor of each county with knowledge of problems concerning human resource agencies;

(B) The chief executive officer of any metropolitan government within the district; and

(C) One (1) state senator and one (1) state representative whose senatorial or representative districts lie wholly or in part within the development district. The senate member shall be selected by the senators whose districts are wholly or in part within the development district and the representative member shall be selected by the representatives whose districts are wholly or in part within the development district. Senators and representatives shall serve on such boards for two (2) years or until they leave the general assembly, whichever occurs first. Senators whose districts lie wholly or partly within the development district shall meet at the call of the senior senator among those affected, for the purpose of selecting a member of the governing board, and representatives shall meet at the call of their senior representative for that purpose.

(2) Members of the board not described in subdivision (a)(1)(C) shall serve four (4) year terms or until the expiration of the term of the official by whom such representative was appointed, whichever occurs first. Members are subject to reappointment. The representative of each county and metropolitan government as indicated above may be chosen from an existing county or metropolitan planning commission.

(3) The board may appoint an executive committee to act for it and determine the authority of such committee.

(4) No member of the general assembly shall receive any additional compensation for such member's service on a board.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
